VIII TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

33.	Title to shares on death of member	(i) On the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the member was a joint holder, and his/her nominee or nominees or legal representatives where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares. (ii) Nothing in clause (i) shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.
34.	Transmission Article	Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either- (a) To be registered himself as holder of the share; or (b) To make such transfer of the shares as the deceased or insolvent member could have made.

35.	Board may require evidence of transmission	Every transmission of a share shall be verified in such manner as the Board may require and the Company may refuse to register any such transmission until the same be so verified or unless such indemnity be given to the Company with regard to such registration which the Board at its discretion shall consider sufficient provided nevertheless that there shall not be any obligation on the Company or the Board to accept any indemnity.
36.	Refusal to register transmission of shares	The Board shall, in either case have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.
37.	Provision as to transmission to apply mutatis mutandis to any other securities.	The provision of these Articles relating to transmission by operation of law shall mutatis mutandis apply to any other securities including debentures of the Company.
38.	Election under Transmission Article	(i) If the person so becoming entitled under the Transmission Article shall elect to be registered as member in respect of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. (ii) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share he shall testify his election by executing an instrument of transfer of the share. (iii) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these relating to the right to transfer and the registration instrument of transfer of share shall be applicable to any notice of transfer as aforesaid as if the death, lunacy, bankruptcy or insolvency of the member had not occurred and the notice of transfer was a transfer signed by that member.
39.	Rights under transmission article	A person so becoming entitled under the Transmission Article to share by reason of the death, lunacy, bankruptcy or insolvency of a member shall, be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the member registered in respect of the share. Provided that the Board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.
40.	Nomination	Notwithstanding anything contained in Articles elsewhere, every holder of securities of the Company may, at any time, nominate, in the manner prescribed by relevant provisions of the Act a person to whom his securities of the Company shall vest in the event of his death.

IX CALL ON SHARES

41.	Board may make calls	The Board may, from time to time, make calls upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times.
42.	Notice of call	Each member shall, subject to receiving at least such number of day's notice as may be prescribed in the Act or Rules made thereunder, specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his/her shares.
43.	Board may extend time for payment	The Board may, from time to time, at its discretion, extend the time fixed for the payment of any call in respect of one or more members as the Board may deem appropriate in any circumstances.
44.	Revocation or postponement of call	A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.
45.	Call to take effect from the date of resolution	A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorizing the call was passed and may be required to be paid by installments.
46.	Liability of joint holders of shares	The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
47.	When interest on call or installment payable	If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at ten per cent per annum or at such lower rate, if any, as the Board may determine.
48.	Board may waive interest	The Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest wholly or in part.
49.	Call on shares of the same class to be made on uniform basis	Where any calls for further share capital are made on shares, such calls be made on a uniform basis on all shares falling under the same class.
50.	Sums deemed to be calls	Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall, for the purposes of these Articles, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue such sum becomes payable.
(i)
(ii)	Effect of non-payment of sums	In case of non-payment of such sum, all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

51.	Payment in anticipation of calls may carry interest	The Board— (a) may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and (b) upon all or any of the monies so advanced, may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate as may be fixed by the Board. Nothing contained in this clause shall confer on the member (a) any right to participate in profits or dividends or (b) any voting rights in respect of the moneys so paid by him until the same would, but for such payment, become presently payable by him.
52.	Provisions as to calls to apply mutatis mutandis to any other securities.	The provisions of the Articles relating to calls shall mutatis mutandis apply to any other securities including debentures of the Company.

X FORFEITURE OF AND LIEN ON SHARES

53.	Notice on non payment of call	If any member fails to pay any call or installment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same or any such extension thereof as aforesaid, the Board may, at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such member requiring him to pay the same, together with any interest that may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non payment.
54.	Form of Notice	The notice shall name a day (not being less than fourteen days from the date of the notice) and a place or places on and at which such call or installment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notices shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time, and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made or installment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.
55.	Non Compliance with notice	If the requisitions of any such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before payment of calls of instalments, interest and expenses, due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to the effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
56.	Notice after forfeiture	When any shares shall have been so forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture and an entry of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register, but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.

57.	Forfeited share to become property of the Company	Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and the Board may sell, re- allot or otherwise dispose of the same upon such terms and in such manner as they think fit.
58.	Power to annul forfeiture	The Board may, at any time before any share so forfeited has been sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed off, annul the forfeiture thereof upon such conditions as they think fit.
59.	Liability on forfeiture	A person whose shares have been forfeited shall ceased to be a member in respect of the forfeited share, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay, and shall forthwith pay to the company, all calls, or instalments, interest and expenses, owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon, from the time of forfeiture until payment, at 12 percent per annum and the Board may enforce the payment thereof, or any part thereof, without any deduction or allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture, but shall not be under any obligation to do so.
60.	Effect of forfeiture	The forfeiture of a share involves the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims / demands against the Company in respect of the share, and all other rights incidental to the share, except such rights as are expressly saved by these Articles.
61.	Evidence for forfeiture	A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the Company, and that certain shares in the Company have been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive of the facts therein stated as against all person claiming to be entitled to the shares The Company may receive the consideration if any, given for the shares on the sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the shares in the favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of. The transferee shall there upon be registered as the holder of the share; and The transferee shall not be bound to see the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
62.	Company's lien on shares	The company shall have a first and paramount lien— (a) on every share (not being a fully paid share), for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called, or payable at a fixed time, in respect of that share; and (b) on all shares (not being fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person, for all monies presently payable by him or his estate to the company: Provided that the Board of Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this clause.

		Such lien shall extend to all dividends and bonuses declared from time to time in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company lien, if any, on such shares.
63.	As to enforcing lien by sale	For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Board may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit, but no sale shall be made until such period as aforesaid shall have elapsed and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such member, his heirs, executors or administrators, or his Committee, curator bonis or other person recognised by the Company as entitled to represent such member of his estate and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment of the sum payable as aforesaid for fourteen days after such notice.
(ii)	Application of proceeds of sale	The net proceeds of any such sale shall be received by the Company and applied in or towards payment of each part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable and the residue, if any, shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the persons entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.
64.	Validity of sale in exercise of lien and after forfeiture	Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the powers by these presents given, the Board may appoint some persons to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold and cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the register in respect of the shares sold and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceeding, or to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the Register in respect of such shares his title to such shares shall not be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture, sale or disposition, nor impeached by any person, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.
65.	Power to Issue new certificates	Where any shares under the powers in that behalf herein contained are sold by the Board and the certificate thereof has not been delivered to the Company by the former holder of the said shares, such certificates shall ipso facto stand cancelled and extinguished and become null and void and annulled, and thereafter, the Board may issue a new certificate for such shares distinguishing it in such manner as they may think fit for the certificate not so delivered up.
